11. Which of these investor types do you believe best describes you?

Conservative - Risk must be very low and you are prepared to accept lower returns to protect capital. The negative effects of tax and inflation will not concern you, provided your initial investment is protected.

Cautious - Seeking better than basic returns, but risk must be low. Typically seeking to protect the wealth, which you have accumulated. You may be prepared to consider some growth investments.

Prudent - Wants a balanced portfolio to work towards medium to long term financial goals. You require an investment strategy, which will cope with the effects of tax and inflation. Calculated risks will be acceptable to you to achieve good returns.

Assertive - Prepared to accept higher volatility and moderate risks. Your primary concern is to accumulate assets over the medium to long term. You require a balanced portfolio, but more aggressive investments may be included.

Aggressive - Prepared to compromise portfolio balance to pursue potentially greater long-term results. Your investment choices are diverse, but carry with them a higher level of risk. Security is secondary to the potential for wealth accumulation.
